

MINUTES OF POSTERS AND PRESENTATIONS EVENING 24TH JANUARY 2023

The president, Dr Paddy Kinsella welcomed everyone, and announce the death of Dr David Howells, former general physician at Burton General Hospital and member of the society for many years. Those attending stood for a minute's silence as a mark of respect.

There were 8 posters submitted and displayed in the café area.

Dr Ian Shand, Dr John McIntyre, and Dr Kinsella judged the posters according to the usual marking scheme and the winner of the £250 poster prize was

Dr Haleema Rashid for a poster titled:-

“Improving the quality of operation notes in oral and maxillary surgery by introducing an electronic proforma.”

There were 5 case presentations, judged by Dr Bleiker and Dr Holloway.

The winner was Dr Saurabh Verma ST2 urology who presented a case of a 69yr old man admitted with what turned out to be a phaeochromocytoma in his adrenal gland.

The runner up was Dr Isabelle Vanheeswijk. ST4 Diabetes & Endocrinology with “ The England Women’s Football Team as a Novel Treatment for a Life-Threatening Condition.”

All the cases lead to many questions from the very engaged audience.

The winner of the Gem Prize for best in year (Gem 1 + Gem 2 exams) was Amna Alanni. She was presented with the trophy and a certificate by the President.

Apologies were received from Mr I Scott. 47 members and colleagues attended

The next meeting is on Tuesday 7th Feb, 7pm by Zoom.

“Population Health management; putting theory into Practice.

Dr Dan Alton and Dr Sakthi Karuraiti.

